

REMARKS

The applicants respectfully disagree with the Examiner's rejections set forth in the present office action. However, desiring to expedite the issuance of a patent for the present invention and in view of the Examiner's indications of amendments that would confer allowance, the applicants have amended the claims substantially in accordance with the Examiner's suggestions. Claims 7-10, 14, 16, 20, 21, 25-27 and 30 are regarded as allowable if properly rewritten. Claim 9 has been rewritten as amended claim 1, claim 8 has been rewritten to include language from claims 1 and 6, claim 11 has been rewritten to include language from claim 14, claim 15 has been rewritten to include language from claim 16, claim 20 has been rewritten to include language from claim 1, claims 21, 25 and 27 have also been incorporated into claim 20 in the alternative, claim 26 has been rewritten to include language from claim 1, and new claims 31-35 (corresponding to claims 22, 23 and 28-30, respectively) have been added to depend from amended claim 26.

To address the rejection of claims 1-10 and 15-30 under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which the applicant regards as the invention, the applicants have deleted the language identified by the Examiner as being indefinite. The applicants have taken this approach for two reasons. First, it is the most straightforward and expeditious way to deal with the rejection. Second, the language identified by the Examiner as indefinite does not appear to be tied to the indications of allowability that are focused on the dependent claims of the application.

No remaining grounds for rejection or objection being given, the claims in their present form are asserted to be patentable over the prior art of record and in condition for allowance. Therefore, allowance of this case is earnestly solicited.

The Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned, if such communication would advance the prosecution of the present application. Lastly, please charge any additional fees (including extension of time fees) or credit overpayment to Deposit Account No. 502117 -- Motorola, Inc.

Respectfully submitted,
X. Zhuang et al.
